SUBJECT John Anthony Stubbs

DAVID HARTMAN: Yesterday the State Department confirmed the recent news reports that American citizens are in Libya helping Colonel Qaddafi invade the neighboring country of Chad. These Americans are servicing and we are told, maybe even flying American made airplanes and helicopters. And according to these reports an ex-CIA agent named Edwin Wilson is importing men and arms and materiel for Colonel Qaddafi.

John Anthony Stubbs is a British pilot, he flew for Wilson in Libya for several months. Earlier this year he was fired and deported when he refused to fly into particular zones, particularly Chad. And Mr. Stubbs is with us from Washington this morning.

Good morning, Mr. Stubbs...

JOHN ANTHONY STUBBS: Good morning.

HARTMAN: ...and welcome.

Good morning.

First of all, you know Edwin Wilson, you were there and you have seen what's going on. Can you tell us specifically what Mr. Wilson is doing?

STUBBS: Mr. Wilson is contracted by Qaddafi to supply as much information and wherewithal as he possibly can. We're talking in terms of pilots, engineers...

HARTMAN: Materiel?
